Dear My Groceries to Go! Participant,

On behalf of the Maryland Department of Aging (“Department”), Meals on Wheels of Central Maryland, and The Salvation Army for the Central Maryland Area Command, we are writing to let you know that the My Groceries to Go! Program will end on September 30, 2024, in the Baltimore Metropolitan area.

We understand that the Program, officially known as the Commodity Supplemental Food Program, has been an important resource for many Baltimore area residents, and we are committed to ensuring that older Marylanders have access to nutritious food. If you need support in finding other resources for food in your area, please contact the Baltimore City Area Agency on Aging at (410) 396-2273 for options close to you.

Additional food assistance options available in the Baltimore Metropolitan area include:

- The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) and Food Pantries: Find locations at <https://mdfoodbank.org/find-food/> or call the Maryland Food Bank Baltimore Office at (410) 737-8282
- Baltimore City Eating Together Program: Call 443-573-0161 or 410-396-1337 or visit <https://www.eatingtogether.com/SiteList.aspx>
- Baltimore County Eating Together Program: Call 410-887-3052 or visit <https://www.baltimorecountymd.gov/departments/aging/centers/eating-together#locations>
- The Salvation Army Feed More Mobile Pantry: Find the nearest location at <https://www.findhelp.org/salvation-army-of-central-maryland--baltimore-md--food-pantry/6603984167239680?postal=21201#office-hours> or call 410-783-2920
- Home-Delivered Meals or Amazon Home-Delivered Grocery Boxes: Contact Maryland Access Point at 1-844-627-5465 or marylandaccesspoint.211md.org to see if you qualify

If you are struggling with finding food resources and need help, please reach out to 211 Maryland by dialing 211 or visiting 211md.org.

Sincerely,

Carmel Roques,
Secretary Maryland Department of Aging
